

CLAS 113: Women in the Ancient World

An examination of the cultural constructions of women and men and the ideologies of gender difference that determined the way men and women of ancient Greece and Rome thought about themselves and each other. The course considers the difference between ideology and "daily life" by juxtaposing what can be known of historical reality with conceptualizations in selected surviving texts.

Credits: 3

Program:

Classics

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Essential Learning Outcomes: ELO #2: Knowledge of Human Cultures and Creative Expression
ELO #5: Social Responsibility and Knowledge of Political Institutions