

MUSJ 102: Music Therapy II

Study the music therapist in the clinical setting, with an emphasis on the client/therapist relationship. Examine major theories of psychotherapy and their relationship to music therapy practice. Understand group musical tasks and experimental music to begin a personal examination of music and its effect upon your own life.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

CLINICAL PRACTICUM IS REQUIRED

Program:

Music Therapy