

POLS 147: ST: Politics & Punishment

Deals with selected problems in organization and program management, concentrating on action programs, goals and priorities, the process of creating new organizations and programs, citizen participation, special-interest control of programs, interprogram coordination, and program evaluation, with particular reference to factors governing success and failure.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

POLS 001, POLS 145, and POLS 146.

Program:

Political Science

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Essential Learning Outcomes: ELO #5: Social Responsibility and Knowledge of Political Institutions