

FINA 311: Finance Principles

Covers introductory principles needed to make sound financial management decisions for business and personal purposes. Develop skills for analyzing and evaluating investment projects, valuing debt and equity securities for investment purposes and managing business cash flows. Fundamental principles surrounding topics such as the time value of money, security valuation, risk / return tradeoff, cost of capital, capital budgeting, short-term financing and planning, and international parity relationships are discussed.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

ACCT 202, ECON 001, ECON 002, MATH 026/156 (C), B-School Major/Minor

Program:

Finance

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS