

INSU 352: Property Liability Insurance

Analyze the needs by business and individuals for property and liability insurance, the nature of coverage available, and systems of rating, marketing, and underwriting. Provide students with an overview of risk management for property and liability exposures of commercial enterprises and an examination and identification of loss exposures for those entities. Explore common commercial insurance contracts and overview of legal aspect. Discuss risk financing methodologies in details.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

FINA 311, FINA 312, B-School Major/Minor

Program:

Insurance