

INFO 204: Mgmt Inform Sys

Provides students with a broad foundation in the concept of modern information systems, including information processing and information technologies in the corporate and organizational environments. Topics include strategic information systems, computer hardware and software, user-interface, data communications, and data management. The emphasis is on problem solving through the use of information systems tools to develop solutions for real-life cases of limited complexity.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

INFO 010, B-School Major/Minor, EA School

Program:

Computer Based Information Systems

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS