

EDUC 410: Pedagogy & Content Literacy

Emphasizes research-based teaching and learning principles for achieving content-specific and broader outcomes. Moreover, this course focuses on helping candidates to prepare students to handle content literacy demands of the discipline. Methods, strategies, technology, and program models appropriate for secondary students are explored.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

Passing Praxis Core scores and admission to the Secondary Education Minor, Proof of passing Praxis II Content scores or proof of registration to take the required Praxis II Content exam.

Program:

Elementary Education