

EGPP 101: Introduction to Engineering

Provides information on engineering education, the engineering profession, and basic concepts and tools. Introduces the engineering design process and provides opportunity for students to complete engineering design projects. Course Offering: Fall Semester

Credits: 2