

AHCC 301: Ethics for Health Professionals

Provides students with foundational knowledge and skills in responsible professional behavior that will enable them to competently reflect upon, address and resolve the ethical and socio-cultural issues that students will confront during their training and professional practice.

Credits: 2

Program:

Allied Health Education