

ACAD 007: College Study Skills

Introduces students to study skills strategies that support their academic success. Topics include: time management, effective note taking techniques, preparing for examinations. This course is graded S/U and does not count toward degree course or credit hour requirements.

Credits: 1

Prerequisites/Permissions:

None. Does not count toward course or credit hours required for degree completion.

Program:

Academic Development