

Unclassified Students

Unclassified students are non-matriculating student who wish to complete courses during the spring or fall semester. Typically students who require completion of pre-requisite courses to begin a specific course of study are considered unclassified.