

SCHM 211: Introduction to Logistics

Examines logistics and supply chain management by taking a total system approach to the management of all activities involved in physically moving and storing raw materials, inventory, and finished goods inventory from point of origin to point of use or consumption.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

ECON 180, INFO 204, MATH 026/156 (C), Junior, B-School Major/Minor

Program:

Supply Chain Management