

THTA 001: Theatre Arts Admin Lab I

Learn the fundamentals of box office operations, theatre facilities management and operations, public relations for the theatre including advertising, publicity and audience development, with supervised lab including production responsibilities in each of three areas of study related to the Department's stage productions and designated Howard University events.

Credits: 1

Program:

Theatre Arts Administration