

FINA 325: Capital Markets

Introduce financial markets and discuss market participants, the basics of cash and derivatives markets, the structure of interest rates and the pricing of debt obligations, equity markets, and debt markets. It is an undergraduate finance elective for finance majors and a business elective for non-finance business majors. It is a required course for students completing the Capital Markets, Sales & Trading, or Investment Management tracks and an elective course completing other tracks in finance.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

FINA 311, FINA 312 (C), B-School Major/Minor

Program:

Finance

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS