

REEH 386: IS:Real Estate Research & Anal

Expose students to the research craft in Real Estate and Urban Land Economics. Stimulate them to engage in applied research, policy analysis, and business strategy formulation for land, space and capital markets. Develop a flair for bringing this knowledge to bear in the business environment as well as the public square at large.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

REEH 100, B-School Major/Minor

Program:

Real Estate