

AFRO 795: Comp Black Literature-Wrtg

Survey the creative literature of black writers in the U.S., the Caribbean, and Africa, and critically analyze the social and cultural environments that influenced their work in this course. As a student, you will gain a deep understanding of the historical and cultural context that shaped the literature produced by black writers and explore the themes and issues that emerge across different geographic regions.

Credits: 3

Program:

Afro-American Studies

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS