

SOCI 295: Restorative Justice

This course helps students develop a critical understanding of various meanings, forms and responses to wrongdoing. Case studies, public policy, dialogue, role-playing, skills development and community engagement are emphasized. Circles of dialogue and reflection are linked to theories and practices of social justice. Students conceptually identify, critically analyze and apply restorative approaches to real world situations.

Credits: 3

Program:

Sociology

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Essential Learning Outcomes: ELO #4: Intellectual and Practical Skills

ELO #5: Social Responsibility and Knowledge of Political Institutions