

EDUC 201: Honors Sophomore Year Research Sem

Introduces students to various topics such as social entrepreneurship and leadership. Students will be exposed to ways to promote themselves and engage with external stakeholders. Students will also explore ideas related to using their own cultural capital, and assets and to the training necessary to grow their own talents.

Credits: 1

Program:

Elementary Education