

CHEG 202: Chem Eng Energy Balances

Application of energy balances to chemical engineering operations and processes that involve non-reactive and reactive systems. The first law of thermodynamics and the correlation of chemical and physical properties are treated along with chemical and phase equilibria.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

PRE-REQ: CHEG 201, MATH 157

Program:

Chemical Engineering

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS