

ARTH 162: Intro to African Art History

Examines the history, aesthetics, process and function of the visual arts of Africa from the prehistoric period to traditional societies of today. Study the interrelationship between the visual arts and religion, music, dance and other components of the African culture.

Credits: 3

Program:

Art History