

ARTF 087: Two Dimensional Concepts I

Learn the basic elements of two-dimensional design: dot, line, shape, value, texture, space and color. Study such principles as rhythm, repetition, contrast, variety, balance and harmony. Understand how with form, each are presented as visual building blocks of a vocabulary necessary to the process of making visual statements.

Credits: 3

Program:

Foundation Design