

INTD 100: Fundamental Drafting of Interiors

Learn graphic communication techniques required to communicate ideas and information related to interior design practice, including one and two-point perspectives. Understand the proper use of equipment and materials and read interior and architectural drawings.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

Art foundational courses or instructor permission.

Program:

Interior Design