

INTD 111: Resident Interior Design I

Explore residential design through an environmentally sustainable lens. Learn design programming, quality of life issues, and interviewing and collaborating with clients. Studio sessions include the development of viable solutions and creative planning of small and large-scale residential spaces, renovations to existing residences, and design for special needs populations.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites/Permissions:

INTD 100, INTD 104, INTD 107, or instructor permission.

Program:

Interior Design